(4) The Government shall nominate one of the Commissioners as Chief Information Commissioner who shall be the chief executive of the Commission.

(5) No person shall be appointed as Commissioner if he is more than sixty five years of age on the date of appointment.

(6) A Commissioner shall hold office for a non-renewable term of three years.

(7) A Commissioner shall not hold any other public office or any other office of profit or be connected with any political party and shall not engage himself in any business or profession during the period he holds office of the Commissioner.

(8) Subject to subsections (9), (10) and (11), a Commissioner shall be liable to removal on grounds of misconduct or physical or mental incapacity.

(9) Before removing a Commissioner, the Government shall communicate the charges to the Commissioner and afford him reasonable opportunity to explain his position.

(10) If the Government is not satisfied with the defence offered, it may refer the case to Provincial Assembly of the Punjab for an open enquiry by a Special Committee to be constituted by the Provincial Assembly.

(11) If the Committee finds the Commissioner guilty of any of the charges mentioned in subsection (8), the Government shall remove the Commissioner.

(12) If Provincial Assembly of the Punjab is dissolved and the situation mentioned in subsection(8) has arisen, the Speaker of the Provincial Assembly shall constitute a special committee and such special committee may exercise the powers of special committee of the Provincial Assembly until the election of the new Provincial Assembly.

6. Functions of the Commission.— (1) The Commission may—

- (a) conduct an inquiry, on its own accord or on a complaint, and may direct a public body to disclose information to an applicant or in a proactive manner;
- (b) determine the public interest in terms of section 13;
- (c) resolve any inconsistencies in the application of the provisions of this Act or the rules or regulations.

(2) The Commission shall decide a complaint within thirty days of its receipt or, for good reasons to be recorded in writing, within sixty days.

(3) The Commission may exercise the powers of a civil court to—

- (a) summon and enforce attendance of persons, compel them to give oral or written evidence on oath and to produce documents or information;
- (b) examine and inspect information;
- (c) receive evidence on affidavits;
- (d) requisition information from any office; and
- (e) issue summons for witnesses or documents.

(4) While inquiring into a complaint, the Commission or any person authorized by the Commission, may examine any information on spot.

(5) The Commission may, while deciding a complaint, impose such fine on a public information officer and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(6) The Commission shall facilitate the application of the provisions of this Act and may—

- (a) issue directives to public bodies for preservation, management, publication, publicity and access to information;
- (b) prescribe the procedure for accessing information from a public body;
- (c) advise and provide support to the Government to make necessary laws and procedures for implementation of the right to information;
- (d) provide technical and other support to the public bodies for effective enforcement of right to information;
- (e) establish an information web-portal;
- (f) compile a user hand book in Urdu and English, containing such information in easily comprehensible form and manner, as many reasonably be required by an applicant; and
- (g) compile guidelines for use by the public information officers.

(7) The Commission shall prepare an annual report on the implementation of the provisions of this Act during a financial year and submit it to the Government by 31 August and the Government shall lay the report before Provincial Assembly of the Punjab.

(8) The annual report of the Commission shall, in particular, contain the following information:-

- (a) status of freedom of information law, rules, regulations and procedures;
- (b) progress on implementation of the freedom of information law, including district and department-wise summaries of information requests showing current status of each information request;
- (c) hurdles being faced in the implementation of freedom of information law; and
- (d) budget, expenses and other organizational matters.

7. Designation of public information officers.— (1) A public body shall, within sixty days of the commencement of this Act, designate and notify as many officers as public information officers in all administrative units or offices under it, as may be necessary.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a public information officer shall provide information to an applicant, and shall perform such other functions as may be prescribed to achieve the purpose of this Act.

(3) The public information officer may seek necessary assistance of any other officer of the public body.

(4) Any officer whose assistance has been sought under subsection (3) shall render all assistance to the public information officer seeking his assistance and for purposes of any contravention of the provisions of this Act, such other officer shall be deemed as public information officer.

8. Maintenance and indexing of information.— (1) Subject to provisions of this Act and the rules or regulations, a public body shall maintain information relating to the body in an easily accessible form.

(2) A public body shall, within the time prescribed by the Commission for any special or general categories of information, computerize or maintain in electronic form the information to enable—

- (a) easy retrieval of information; and
- (b) easy and authorized electronic access of information by an applicant.

9. Annual report of public bodies.— A public body shall publish in electronic form or otherwise an annual report of its activities during the previous financial year by 31st

August each year in such manner as may be prescribed and make the report available for public inspection free of charge and for purchase at a reasonable cost.

10. Application procedure.— (1) An applicant may make an application to a public information officer on an Information Request Form or on plain paper.

(2) The public body shall make easily available to the public the Request Form both in printed and electronic form.

(3) An applicant shall not be required to provide reasons for request for information and shall only be required to provide an adequate description of the information and the details necessary to provide the requisite information.

(4) Where an applicant is having difficulty making a request, including because he cannot describe the information in sufficient detail or because he is disabled or illiterate, the concerned public information officer shall provide reasonable assistance to the applicant.

(5) Where an applicant has indicated a preferred form of access, including a physical copy, an electronic copy or an opportunity to inspect documents, the public body shall provide access in that form unless doing so is likely to interfere with its operations or harm the document and in that case the information shall be provided in such form as may serve the purpose.

(6) The public body shall not charge any fee for making a request other than cost of reproducing or sending the information in accordance with a centrally set schedule of costs stipulated by the Commission.

(7) The public information officer shall respond to an application as soon as possible and in any case within fourteen working days, provided that this may be extended by a maximum of a further fourteen working days where this is necessary, including because the request requires a search through a large number of records or consultation with a third party or any other public body, but the public information officer shall provide the information relating to life or liberty of a person within two working days of the receipt of the application.

(8) Where the public information officer decides not to provide the information, he shall intimate to the applicant the reasons for such decision along with a statement that the applicant may file an internal review or a complaint against the refusal under this Act.

(9) The information from, or the copy of, any public record supplied to the applicant under subsection (1) shall contain a certificate at the foot thereof that the information is correct or the copy is a true copy of such public record, and such certificate shall be dated, signed and stamped by the public information officer.

11. Transfer of application.— (1) Where an officer of a public body other than the concerned public information officer receives an application for access to information, such officer shall immediately transfer the application to the concerned public information officer under intimation to the applicant and the public information officer shall process the application as if he had received it under section 10.

(2) If the information or part of the information requested in an application is not available with the public body or the office of the public body, the public information officer shall, within seven days and under intimation to the applicant, transfer the application to the public information officer to whom the application should have been made for provision of the information or part of the information.

(3) If the public information officer does not know the public body or the office where the requested information or part of the information may be available, he shall inform the applicant that the requested information or part of the information is not available with the public body.

(4) If an application is transferred to another public information officer under subsection (2), the other public information officer shall process the application as if the other public information officer received the application under section 10.

12. Internal review.— (1) If an applicant does not file a complaint with the Commission, he may request the head of the public body for internal review of any decision of the public information officer in relation to what the applicant regards as involving—

- (a) a failure by the public information officer to comply with any provision of this Act including failure to communicate decision within the specified time; or
- (b) unreasonable behaviour by the public information officer in the exercise of any discretion under the Act; or
- (c) provision of incomplete, misleading or false information under the Act; or
- (d) any other matter relating to requesting or obtaining access to information.

(2) An applicant shall, within sixty days from the date of communication of the decision of the public information officer or failure of the public information officer to provide information within the stipulated time, submit a request, in writing, under subsection (1) and specify remedy which the applicant seeks against the decision of the public information officer.

(3) The officer before whom an application for internal review is filed under this section may exercise any of the powers of the public information officer under this Act and shall, within fourteen days of the receipt of the application—

- (a) confirm, modify or reverse the decision of the public information officer;
- (b) notify the decision of internal review to the applicant including reasons for the decision; and
- (c) order departmental action against the public information officer if found negligent in performance of duties under this Act.

13. Exceptions.— (1) A public information officer may refuse an application for access to information where disclosure of the information shall or is likely to cause harm to—

- (a) national defence or security, public order or international relations of Pakistan;
- (b) a legitimate privacy interest, unless the person concerned has consented to disclosure of the information;
- (c) the protection of legally privileged information or of the rules relating to breach of confidence;
- (d) the legitimate commercial interests of a public body or a third party, including information subject to third party intellectual property rights;
- (e) the life, health or safety of any person;
- (f) the prevention or detection of crime, the apprehension or prosecution of offenders, or the administration of justice;
- (g) the ability of the Government to manage the economy; or
- (h) the effective formulation of or success of a policy either by its premature disclosure or by restraining the free and frank provision of advice within the Government.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1), if the Commission determines that the public interest in such disclosure outweighs the harm that shall or is likely to be caused by such disclosure, it may direct the public information officer to provide the information.

(3) Where a part of a document is covered by an exception in subsection (1), any information in the document which is not covered by an exception shall be disclosed if it is reasonably severable from the rest of the document.

(4) Where the information is refused, the public information officer shall, within the time-limit specified under section 10, inform the applicant specifying—

- (a) the reasons on account of which and the provision of this Act under which the requested information is refused;
- (b) procedure for internal review or complaint against the decision; and
- (c) name and designation of the person who may provide full or limited access to the exempted information.

14. Allocation of funds.— The Government shall allocate adequate funds to the Commission to enable it to establish a secretariat, hire the requisite staff to conduct its business properly, and promote access to information among the public, public servants and civil society.

15. Offence.— In addition to any other action under any other law, any person who destroys a record which at the time it was destroyed was the subject of an application for access to information, internal review or complaint, or otherwise obstructs access to information which is the subject of an application, internal review or complaint, with the intention of preventing its disclosure under this Act, commits an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with fine or with both.

16. Cognizance for offence under this Act.— A court shall not take cognizance of the offence punishable under this Act except on a report in writing of the facts constituting such offence made with the previous sanction of the Commission or an officer authorized by the Commission.

17. Bar of suits etc.— A court shall not entertain a suit, application or other proceeding in respect of any decision made under this Act and the decision shall not be called in question otherwise than by way of an internal review or a complaint under the Act.

18. Power to make rules.— (1) The Government, in consultation with the Commission and by notification in the official Gazette, may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

- (2) The rules shall also provide elaboration of the following provisions of this Act:-
- (a) procedure for proper maintenance, indexing and storage of information, including details of information to be published in an electronic form;
 - (b) procedure for filing of request for information and a schedule of the costs for providing the information;
 - (c) handling and internal review mechanisms;
 - (d) information that shall be included in the annual report of each public body;
 - (e) procedure for publishing, displaying and obtaining the annual report;
 - (f) designation of public information officers, and if required, any other official delegates, and their duties and responsibilities;
 - (g) procedure for removal of a Commissioner, including definition of misconduct;
 - (h) finances, budgeting and staffing related to the Commission and its secretariat;
 - (i) responsibilities of Commissioners, mechanism for taking decisions, quorum requirements and procedures in case of non-availability of one or more Commissioners;
 - (j) provisions regarding imposition of penalties or fines; and
 - (k) any fees that may be charged by a public body in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

19. Power to frame regulations.— Subject to this Act and the rules, the Commission may, by notification, frame regulations to give effect to the provisions of the Act and the rules.

20. Power to remove difficulties.— If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, by order in the official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

21. Interpretation.— This Act, the rules and regulations shall be interpreted so as to advance the purposes of this Act and to facilitate and encourage, promptly and at the lowest reasonable cost, the disclosure of information and effective implementation of right to information.

22. Indemnity.— No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any person for anything which is done in good faith or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rules or regulations made under the Act.

23. Act to take precedence over other laws.— The provisions of this Act shall take precedence over the provisions of any other law.

24. Repeal.— The Punjab Transparency and Right to Information Ordinance (IV of 2013) is hereby repealed.
